

HORSE RACE

Display Boards

ALGE-TIMING offers different display boards for riding. The model shown below is a solution that has been installed on many horse race courses worldwide. It has proved itself by its convenience and clarity. Of course, ALGE-TIMING also offers full matrix display boards as well as videowalls.

We are also glad to work together with our customers on special solutions for the particular stadium. Please ask your local ALGE representative!

Display Board D-HS 300-17N-P7-8x144:

for horse races with interface for ALGE-TIMING timing devices. Control of the display board via PC software or ALGE console with PC keyboard including control console for „Steward Room“.

Interfaces: RS485, RS232 and Ethernet

Figure height: 300 mm

1. line: with 17 numerical figures for displaying the racing number (2 figures), starting number of the first 5 riders (each 2 figures) and time (5 figures for minutes, seconds and 1/100).

2. line: full matrix of 8 x 144 pixel (min 25 letters), each pixel consists of 7 extremely bright red LED, display of animated texts (e.g. ticker) is possible.

